

Graduation 2011

38th Commencement Celebration

⋮ Saturday, April 30, 2011, 10 a.m.
⋮ Central Assembly of God
⋮ Springfield, Missouri

“Shaping servant leaders with knowledge, skill and passion to revitalize the Church and evangelize the world in the power of the Spirit.”

Commencement Program

Commencement at the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary (AGTS) acknowledges several streams of influence. The medieval academic tradition is part of the seminary culture so there are measures of formality: robes that reflect various academic disciplines and certain ceremonial dimensions that are integral to this event.

AGTS is firmly rooted in the Pentecostal faith tradition. We affirm worship that is celebratory and vibrant, and we welcome the dynamics of the Holy Spirit in our congregational life. We are committed to the redemptive ministry of Jesus Christ that is empowered by the Holy Spirit. These elements of the Pentecostal tradition are also integral to commencement.

AGTS is committed to thoroughness in graduate theological education. The ceremonial dimensions of this event acknowledge our graduates' significant achievements in study. The celebratory dimensions demonstrate our belief that today's graduates are people of destiny in God's eternal plan of redemption. These elements find root in the biblical theme of "zeal with knowledge" found in Isaiah 11:2.

About AGTS

ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR 2011

Manuel A. Cordero, Class of 1981

Dr. Manuel A. Cordero serves as the correctional ministries representative for the General Council of the AG. An ordained minister with the Pennsylvania-Delaware District Council, he has been involved in prison ministry for over 34 years, serving in the Federal Bureau of Prisons for nearly 24 years. Prior to retiring he was assistant to the Chief of Chaplains in Washington, D.C. He also served as associate pastor at Oasis City Church in Philadelphia until 2009.

Dr. Cordero is an adjunct professor at Nyack College (Washington, D.C.), Wheaton College (Wheaton, Ill.) and AGTS. He conducts workshops and seminars internationally. In 2010 he was named Chaplain of the Year by the Institute of Prison Ministry of the Billy Graham Center at Wheaton College.

He studied at the University of Puerto Rico (Rio Piedras), earned a B.S. in Bible at Central Bible College, an M.Div. from AGTS and a D.Min. in Marriage and Family Therapy from Palmer Seminary (Philadelphia, Pa.). Manuel resides in Maryland and is married to Christine (Kuykendall). They have two grown children and five grandchildren.

SIGMA CHI PI HONOR SOCIETY

The Alliance for AG Higher Education sponsors the Sigma Chi Pi Honor Society. The seminary faculty nominate a limited number of graduates who satisfy scholastic, character and leadership qualifications. Current graduates receiving this honor are noted in the program.

A second category honors alumni who graduated at least 10 years ago and meet similar criteria. This year's recipients are:

John A. Battaglia (M.A. 1989, D.Min. 2005) is lead pastor at Christian Chapel AG in Columbia, Mo. He also served as administrative pastor at First AG in Des Moines, Iowa. A church planter and pastor for over 20 years, John has been instrumental in a variety of large and small church contexts in the U.S. and internationally. He completed a D.Min., M.Div. equivalency and M.A. at AGTS and a B.A. at Central Bible College. His doctoral project was entitled "Empowering: Implications of Jesus' Leadership in Luke's Gospel for the Pastoral Team." John is passionate about Jesus and living as an authentic follower of Christ.

Barbara J. Cavaness (M.A. 1975) is an educator and missionary with wide-ranging experience in Africa and the Asia Pacific field. She also served as visiting professor of intercultural studies at AGTS for 12 years. Barbara now travels to colleges and seminaries in Asia to help train Asians to reach the nations. Student missionaries from 14 countries have attended training classes in Singapore, Thailand and the Philippines. Recently she and her co-author taught from their book, God's Women: Then and Now, to nearly 1,800 women leaders in India. Her academic background includes a Ph.D. and M.Div. from Fuller Theological Seminary, an M.A. from AGTS and a B.A. from Central Bible College.

Dr. Johnson (M.A. 1991) has served as a missionary for over 25 years and has distinguished himself as one of the brightest thinkers in Pentecostal missions. He was the first J. Philip Hogan Professor of World Missions at AGTS. He is a Ph.D. graduate from the Oxford Centre for Missions Studies, University of Wales, where he researched social influence processes in his region's urban slums. In addition to his M.A. in Biblical Literature from AGTS, he earned an M.A. in Social Science with an emphasis in leadership at Azusa Pacific University. He earned a B.A. from Northwest University in Kirkland, WA.

KAPPA DELTA CHI

The faculty elect no more than 10% of the graduating class into the Kappa Delta Chi Honor Society each year. Students selected to receive this award must have a minimum cumulative gpa of 3.7, show potential for ministry and be in good standing with AGTS and the community. Current graduates receiving this honor are noted in the program.

STANLEY M. HORTON AWARD

Each year the Bible and Theology faculty confer the Stanley M. Horton Award to an M.A.T.S. graduate based on excellence in writing of the seminar paper.

The graduate receiving this honor is noted in the program.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

A tradition derived from the oldest European universities, academic dress in American higher education follows the guidelines adopted by the American Council on Education.

A bachelor's gown is traditionally black and has pointed sleeves. The master's gown is distinguished by its oblong sleeves, while the doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves with velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck and down the front. In a few instances, the doctoral gown may be another color representing a specific institution.

The colorful hood linings represent the colors of the institution conferring the degree. Hood linings for AGTS are royal blue and gold.

The velvet border on the hood indicates the field of study in which the degree has been conferred. Those degrees conferred by AGTS are represented as follows: Dark Blue, Ph.D.; Scarlet, Doctor of Ministry, Master of Divinity; Burnt Orange, Doctor of Missiology; Golden Yellow, Master of Arts in Counseling; White, Master of Arts in Christian Ministries, Intercultural Ministries and Theological Studies.

THE PULPIT

The pulpit used during the commencement ceremony is a gift on loan from Central AG. When not in use during commencement, it is located in the Khoo Kay Peng World Prayer Center at the seminary. Every general superintendent of the AG—except the first, E.N. Bell—and every president and executive vice president of AGTS has preached behind this pulpit.

THE SEMINARY MACE

The seminary mace is an artistic rendering of the mandate and mission of AGTS. Approximately 36 inches in length, it is constructed of West African Bubinga wood and gold-plated brass.

The head of the mace is a carved wood globe representing all people in God's world. The globe is mounted on a horizontal cross symbolizing humanity's dependence on the atoning death of Christ. Above the globe is a descending dove with wings and tail configured to resemble a flame, a reminder of the power and presence of the Holy Spirit in Christian life and ministry. "AGTS" is engraved on the face of the globe which is also encircled by an unwound scroll depicting the Word of God and bearing the text, "By my Spirit," said the Lord" (Zechariah 4:6).

Since the sixteenth century, the mace has been a symbol of the institution that it represents. It is carried by the faculty marshal in all academic processions.

BRIEF AGTS HISTORY

The Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, originally named the Assemblies of God Graduate School and incorporated in 1972, first opened its doors for classes to missionaries in the summer of 1973 and began with a student body of 77. For 38 years, AGTS has nurtured Pentecostal leaders in a context of academic excellence and spiritual passion.

For its first 24 years, the seminary occupied facilities at The General Council of the AG.

After completion of its "For Such a Time" capital fund campaign, the seminary broke ground for a long awaited and functional 55,000 square foot facility in March 1996 and in July 1997 moved to its first permanent home.

The Michael J. and Frances Cardone Building is an eloquent statement of theological purpose. Powerful symbols of creation and redemption, Pentecost and mission, servant-leadership and Pentecostal heritage are found throughout; particularly in the Great Hall, the William J. Seymour Chapel and the Khoo Kay Peng World Prayer Center.

AGTS enrolls an average of 450 students and offers Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Ministry, Doctor of Missiology, Master of Divinity and Master of Arts degrees.

Alumni currently serve in all 50 states and 125 countries. The seminary's mission is to "Shape servant leaders with knowledge, skill and passion to revitalize the church and evangelize the world in the power of the Spirit."
