Independent Studies Course
BTH 631 THEOLOGY OF CHARISMATA

David M. Dippold

January 4-April 23

COURSE SYLLABUS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

A biblical study of the gifts of the Spirit with special emphasis on the Pauline Epistles. This investigation includes an analysis of the definition and nature of the gifts, their context, significance, and functions. Their use and contemporary application to the ministry of the Spirit will be explored.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Analyze and explain the biblical teachings on spiritual gifts with special emphasis on the Pauline epistles.
2. Articulate a Pentecostal theology for the gifts of the Holy Spirit.
3. Explain ways to instruct, encourage, and oversee the operation of spiritual gifts in a local church setting.
4. Articulate his/her philosophy of ministry regarding spiritual gifts.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Biblical Synthesis on the ministry of the Holy Spirit Paper:
  - >The student is to read Stanley Horton's text, What the Bible Says About the Holy Spirit.
  - >The student is to do an inductive Bible study using the biblical occurrences of "spirit" in both the Old and New Testaments. The student will do the study based on the Hebrew and Greek words for "spirit." The study should emphasize the work and ministry of the Spirit, not the person or deity of the Spirit.
  - >The student is to write a 7-10 page synthesis on the ministry and work of the Holy Spirit as seen in Scripture based on the reading of Horton's text and the inductive Bible study.

2. Synopsis and comparison of Schatzmann, Siegfried. A Pauline Theology of the Charismata and Don and Katie Fortune's Discover Your God-Given Gifts:
  - >The student is to read Schatzmann's text, A Pauline Theology of the Charismata and Don and Katie Fortune's text, Discover Your God-Given Gifts.
  - >The student is to write a 5-7 page synopsis and comparison of the texts, highlighting the etymology of the word "charismata," summarizing Schatzmann's views as given in his text, summarizing the Fortunes' views as given in their text, and noting the theological distinctions between the two works.

3. Comparative study on the definitions of the charismata listed in the Pauline letters.
  - >The student is to read the textbooks by Donald Gee, Harold Horton, and David Lim.
  - >The student is to write a comparative study for the spiritual gifts listed in I Corinthians 12:4-11; Romans 12:4-8; and Ephesians 4:11ff based on the required textbooks (other sources may be used such as Fee's work noted above). The study should include: 1) the name of the gift as listed in scripture, 2) biblical references where the name of the gift is stated, 3) definitions of the gifts as given by the various textbook authors, 4) examples of the gifts taken from scripture, and 5) any modern/contemporary/extra-biblical examples of the gift as given in the textbooks. The study should be at 9-10 pages in length.

4. Pentecostal Pastors Interview:

>The student is to interview at least five Pentecostal or Charismatic pastors. The interviews should include discussion on the following. 1) How does the pastor define "spiritual gifts?" How does the pastor view the lists found in Romans 12, Ephesians 4, I Corinthians 12, and I Peter 4? 2) How does the pastor and church give instruction on spiritual gifts? 3) How does the pastor and church encourage the use and practice of spiritual gifts in the life of the church, including the services? 4) How does the pastor and church deal with abuses or misuses of spiritual gifts?

>The student will write a 5-7 page summary of the interviews, including the names and dates of the interviews.

5. Personal Theology of the Charismata Paper:

>The student is to articulate his/her theology of the charismata based on the readings, interviews, and Biblical studies done in the course. The paper should be 7-10 pages in length.

>The paper should include: 1) the student's personal view on how the "lists" of charismata in the Pauline writings fit together; 2) the student's definitions (brief) of the gifts listed in I Corinthians 12; Romans 12; and Ephesians 4; 3) the student's approach to spiritual gifts in contemporary settings including how to instruct, encourage, and oversee the gifts both in the church and in the marketplace.
